Metonymy works by the contiguity (association) between two concepts,

File Type PDF Researching And Applying Metaphor Cambridge Applied Linguistics

whereas the term "metaphor" is based upon their analogous similarity. When people use metonymy, they do not typically wish to transfer qualities from one referent to another as they do with metaphor. There is nothing press-like about reporters or crown-like about a monarch, but "the press" and "the crown" are both common ...
