The book covers the high's and low's of Phil, who takes up Marathon running. I have run a couple of Marathon's myself, and the early chapters struck several chords with me. He provides some good descriptions of most of the 25 (ish) marathons he has run, to such an extent that I am interested in a few of them, and put off a few of them.

Keep on Running: The Highs and Lows of a Marathon Addict ...

Keep on Running gives you an honest and intimate insight into the discipline and determination needed to run a marathon. It also gives you a unique view of Europe through the eyes of the runner. I found parts of the book very funny, especially Phil's motivation for running: his uncaring P.E. teacher.

Verse 14. - I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus; rather, with the best manuscripts, unto the prize. The first preposition, "towards," expresses the aim; the second, "unto," the end of the race. The high calling; the upward, heavenward calling. God is calling us all upward, heavenward, by the voice of the Lord Jesus, who is the Word of God. Comp ...
