The Bible provides a reassuring answer to that question. 1. How does the Bible give hope? The Bible not only explains why the world is filled with problems but also shares the good news that these problems are temporary and will soon be gone. The Bible's promises can "give you a future and a hope." (Read Jeremiah 29:11, 12.) Those ...

The Bible was written on materials that do not last long, such as leather and papyrus. But men who loved the Bible carefully copied and recopied it by hand. Even though powerful people tried to eliminate the Bible, others were willing to risk their lives to safeguard it. Jehovah has not let anyone or anything stop him from communicating with us.
